

A. A GAME ABOUT TREES

The children played a game about trees. It was a game of pretend.

When the wind blows, trees bend and sway in the breeze.

Peter played the game. He pretended to be a tall pine tree. He let his body bend and sway in the wind.