

GROUP OF SEVEN

Lawren Harris, Untitled, Mendel Art Gallery, Saskatoon

QUESTIONS:

1. Lawren Harris was a member of the Canadian Group of (Seven, Eleven).
2. The group formed in the year (1880, 1920).
3. The group chose to paint the Canadian (people, wilderness).
4. Painters of that time were imitating the (rugged, gentle) scenes popular in Europe.
5. The main purpose of the group was to develop a style of painting that would be distinctly (Canadian, European).