

To hang the eagle, the students may choose to secure a piece of tree branch across the top of the diorama. They may do so by making a “v-cut” along the top edge of opposite sides of the box and laying the branch in position, as illustrated below:

The eagle can then be hung from the branch.

